Transient Application Checklist

Students applying for transient status at the University of Georgia are requesting to be a one term guest student with plans and eligibility to return to their home institution at the end of the term. As a guest student, you may register for classes, but no credit evaluation of your prior work will take place. You may not be eligible for financial aid and registration is on a class availability basis. UGA Classes taken while you are a transient student will not be used in the evaluation of grades or hours necessary for meeting transfer criteria if you later seek to apply as a transfer student to UGA. You should plan to meet with the admissions counselor at the Griffin Campus to discuss your course plans to assure that you have the required prerequisite courses prior to applying as a transient student.
